

The Rockwills Christian Guide to Wills, Living Trusts and Estate Planning

How to Plan Your Estate for an Eternity of Benefits

The Rockwills Christian Guide to Wills, Living Trusts and Estate Planning is the Singapore and Malaysian edition of the book originally titled The Christian Guide to Wills, Living Trusts and Estate Planning by Mark L. James and Lynne Marie Kohm that was published in the U.S. in 2007. The Rockwills edition is the result of collaborative efforts to reach out to the Christian community in Singapore and Malaysia, customized to factor in local laws and requirements.

A Comprehensive Guide to Estate and Charitable Planning and How to Incorporate the Christian Worldview

There are three aspects of the Christian worldview that distinguish Christian estate planning from secular estate planning. Our objective is to help you understand why Christian estate planning is unique and to help you accomplish all God has for you in that process. This book discusses these three features and how they make Christian estate planning unique along with a comprehensive overview of the estate and charitable planning process.

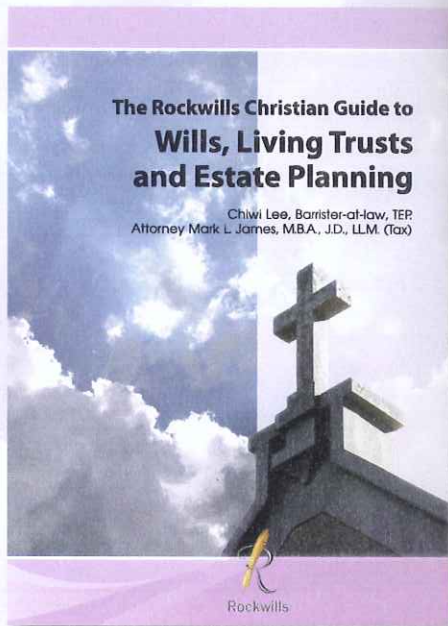

1. God Owns All of Our Worldly Possessions Regardless of How We Acquired Them!
2. We're Leaving Our Worldly Possessions Behind When We're Gone
3. Christian are Givers

About The Authors

Chiwi Lee, Barrister-at-law, Advocate & Solicitor, TEP
Chief Executive Officer of Rockwills Group of Companies, Associate Estate Planning Practitioner

Professional Affiliations: Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners, Singapore STEP Chapter, Financial Planning Association of Singapore

Education: Nanyang Business School, M.B.A.; University of Kent, B.A.

Attorney Mark L. James, M.B.A., J.D., LL.M. (Tax)
Estate Planning Attorney with the law firm of Hartman, Underhill, & Brubaker, LLP in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Professional Affiliations: Christian Legal Society, Christian Stewardship Association, The Orchard Foundation of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, National Association of Estate Planners and Councils, National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.

Education: Regent University School of Law, J.D.; Michigan State University, M.B.A., College of William and Mary, LL.M. (Tax); Grove City College, B.A.