

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES IN CONSTRUCTION ADJUDICATION

Thursday, 6 April 2006, 4.45pm to 7.30pm

About this Seminar

Since statutory adjudication in construction cases came into effect in Singapore with the enactment of the Building and Construction Security of Payments Act 2004 on 1st April 2005, the first case has recently been decided in favour of the subcontractors.

Join us for this timely update led by counsel involved in this recently concluded adjudication and chaired by Mr John Tackaberry QC. This session will address significant issues in construction adjudication with references made to issues arising in the first adjudication as well as to recent case law on adjudication.
