

A PERSONAL ACCOUNT OF THE PINOCHET AFFAIR:

Michael Caplan QC Shares His Thoughts

Thursday, 17 November 2005, 5.30-7.00pm

About this Seminar

Michael Caplan QC is probably best known for representing Senator Pinochet in the extradition proceedings in the United Kingdom. Do not miss this opportunity to hear his first-hand account of the extradition proceedings involving the former Chilean dictator on charges of torture and other human rights abuses.

At this evening seminar, Mr. Caplan will talk about the Pinochet case, answer questions and discuss the issues arising. His talk will include:

- the background to the extradition request
- the initial hearings in the High Court and House of Lords
- the important issues surrounding the Law Lords decision
- the dramatic conclusion
