

Belinda Co – Project Consultant

Belinda Co has worked extensively as a business consultant and negotiator internationally for more than 15 years. With her legal and business background, she has facilitated and led business negotiations in Vietnam, Thailand, Taiwan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia and Canada. Among her various portfolios in Asia, she has been:-

- A Director, Legal Process Analyst and a training consultant for a leading Singapore consultancy to the legal industry, handling projects with regional Judiciaries, law practices and sectoral regulatory bodies such as the Singapore Academy of Law, The Law Society of Singapore and the Bar Council of Malaysia
- Managing Director of a Vietnamese-Canadian joint venture company specializing in construction material fabrication and supply – with a focus in managing financial risk, contractual compliance and labour relations
- An independent investment/business and legal advisor to foreign companies investing in Vietnam.
- Assistant to Crown Counsel (prosecution) in the Ministry of the Attorney General in British Columbia, Canada
- A practising lawyer in Canada

Belinda is currently on assignment to lead a Canadian Government Initiative to negotiate with Aboriginals for the settlement of water rights under the Province of British Columbia's Water Licensing framework. She focuses her work on public and private sector clients on conflict management and cross-cultural training and consultancy to enhancing change management capacity within organizations.

Belinda obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Bachelor of Law from the University of British Columbia, a Master in Applied Finance from Macquarie University, Australia, and a Diploma in Business Administration from Henley Management College, England. She is currently reading her Master of Arts in Conflict Analysis and Management at Royal Roads University, Canada, and obtaining her Certificate in Intercultural Communications at the University of British Columbia.