

TESTIMONIAL — MS JUNE TAN

It was LAWASIA's pleasure to work closely with Ms June Tan in her capacity as Director, Training & Continuing Professional Development at the Law Society of Singapore during the production of the joint international LAWASIA/Law Society Children and the Law Conference (27-28 May, 2005).

I am pleased to attest to Ms Tan's considerable skills and efficiency in this context, as well as her very pleasant and cooperative nature in all matters.

She clearly brought to the complex task of arranging an international conference a deep and intelligent understanding of what was required for the participants at whom this event was targeted as well as the stakeholders who sought to promote their services through it. She showed an evident ability to achieve results quickly and efficiently and a significant capacity to work across a wide range of issues.

It was particularly impressive to observe how, in the organisation of the event, she led and inspired those under her supervision to achieve an outcome that exceeded all expectations.

Equally, she exhibited an energetic and flexible attitude in all matters that demonstrate well a well-rounded and highly competent person whose leadership was essential to the successful result of the event.

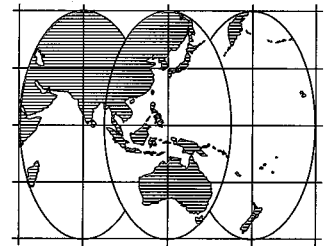

What is also very worthy of comment was Ms Tan's ability to produce high quality legal training on an extremely tight budget, and with limited resources.

LAWASIA is most grateful for her hard work well beyond the call of duty and her acumen in achieving excellent results. On LAWASIA's behalf, I have no hesitation in attesting to Ms Tan's high level of ability and proficiency as well as the amiable and helpful way in which she employs these attributes.
