

Chee Wei-lin – Project Consultant

Wei-lin is a lawyer turned coach on a mission to partner with people who want to Uncover their Genius and Define their Greatness.*

Chee Wei-lin is the former Director of Training & Resource at Drew & Napier LLC until 2004. While there, she led and managed a continuing professional development programme for more than a 100 lawyers in this top tier legal firm.

She is also a former litigation partner of PK Wong & Advani. Wei-lin started her legal career as a Deputy Public Prosecutor and State Counsel within the Singapore Legal Service in the Ministry of Defence and Commercial Affairs Department.

For 4 years in 1996 to 2000, Wei-lin served as a full-time volunteer training staff with Youth With A Mission, Singapore, an international non-profit Christian organization. As a member of their training team, she worked with people from numerous countries, of different races, and diverse backgrounds and ages. She also pioneered a YWAM training school in Kuala Lumpur.

Currently Wei-lin runs her own consultancy and coaching practice. She is actively involved in facilitation and coaching programmes for leadership development, as well as in the personal and professional development of executives, professionals and managers.

Wei-lin's coaching clients include corporate executives, professionals and young people starting out in their careers. She offers her coaching clients wisdom from her broad career experiences and an extensive network of resources. Her coaching style is affirming and fun-loving. She is a big dreamer with lots of new ideas and absolutely passionate about people living full and satisfying lives.

Wei-lin is a Founding Member of the International Association of Coaches (IAC), CoachU Graduate, Emergenetics-Asia Associate, Certified Highlands Affiliate and Certified Behavioral Consultant of the DISC Personality System. She remains an Advocate and Solicitor of Singapore, is a Member on the Solicitor's Rolls of England and Wales and of the Singapore Academy of Law.